

Leonardo Sahium is the Senior Pastor of Gavea Presbyterian Church in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He earned a Bachelor degree in Theology at Mackenzie University in Sao Paulo, and a Master of Theology from Andre Jumper Pos-Graduation Center (CPAJ), and also a D. Min from Reformed Theological Seminary (RTS). He is the President of the Theological Board of the Presbyterian Church of Brazil, which administers the denominations seminars throughout the country. He is the director of the Church Planting Training Center. God has blessed him with a wonderful family; he and his wife Cristiane have two adult children- Nathan (26) and Amanda (21).

Jorge and Maricela Aleman have been married for 28 years and have three daughters, Keren (27), Keila (25) and Katia (21). Jorge has been a leader of the Church Planting Movement in Northern Mexico for 25 years - first as pastor-leader in the presbytery where MTW started the movement, and now as the director of training. In partnership with Redeemer City to City he has been training and coaching church planters for the Northern Mexico Church Planting Movement. This training focuses on developing the character, skills and abilities of church planters and pastors, so that they can accomplish their goals of establishing and growing new churches. The goal is to reach out the 25 largest cities in Northern Mexico. Jorge is also the Senior Pastor of the church— Jesus Christ: Source of Salvation (Jesucristo Fuente de Redención) in Monterrey; a leading church in the Presbytery. Moreover, He is the President (Stated Clerk) of the Nuevo Leon Presbytery. This Presbytery is one of the keys to expanding the vision of church planting throughout northern Mexico. Maricela is part time staff in the church developing the children ministry and leading several women Bible studies.

Rick Amos is the Director of Eurasia Partners Network. Their mission is to accelerate church growth in Central Europe, Russia and Central Asia through coaching, connecting and resourcing. Eurasia Partners is connected to 19 different church-planting movements representing more than 350 churches. These Gospel-centered churches focus on personal evangelism, intentional discipleship, spiritual multiplication and raising up leaders to plant more churches. Rick's wife, Terri, serves as Coaching Trainer for the network and also leads Women's Ministry initiatives throughout the region.

Adrian Rusnac is the lead pastor and planter of M28 Church in Bucharest, România. He earned a bachelor degree in pastoral theology and a Master of Arts from Baptist Seminary in Bucharest, and also a D. Min. from Midwestern Baptist Seminary, KC. God blessed him with a wonderful family, him and his wife Eliza have three kids: Elias (12), Clara (10) and Daria (2).

Over the last 15 years, David Martin got married to Honor and they have been blessed with four lively children (Caleb 14, Abigail 12, Clara 9 and Daniel 7). He also co-planted Immanuel Church Dublin, was ordained into the Church of Ireland, and authored 'Transgenderism: You, your family, the gospel and transgenderism', and 'Different: Our witness and the sins that work against it'. He is currently Director of Irish Church Missions, an indigenous Anglican Church Planting Platform that since 1849 has been involved in starting and strengthening Anglican evangelical churches in Ireland. Together along with other ICM churches he is exploring new church plants in the greater Dublin area, the most recent of which is Christ Church North Dublin which David leads.

Ricardo Agreste has been married with Sonia for 34 years. They have three children: Luiza, married with Paulo and mother of Gabriel and Joao; Levi, married with Jessica; and Ligia (single). Ricardo is the planter of Chacara Primavera Church in Campinas, Brasil and has been leading this local church in the last 21 years. Besides, Ricardo is the president director of CTPI, an organization that leads the church planting movement in Brasil. He has a bachelor degree in Theology from Southern Presbyterian Seminary and Philosophy from FAI. He also has a Th.M. degree from Calvin Theological Seminary.

