WHAT WILL JESUS DO NEXT?

WHAT I SAY TO YOU I SAY TO ALL, 'BE ON THE ALERT!'
—MARK 13:37

Jesus promises us the best is yet to come. When He returns, He will judge the world and establish the final state of things. This is the Christian's hope. Until then, Jesus' command is to be on the alert.

Are you ready for His return? Being prepared for eternity involves understanding He is Savior. Savior from what? Savior from our sin problem. It also involves understanding that Jesus is Lord. When we are captured by the love of Jesus, we enjoy Him.

Those who share Christ as Master join in Biblical community. This involves joining with others to worship Jesus on Sunday. It also involves joining others throughout the week to open God's Word in a small group.

From the time we first follow Jesus, we cannot help sharing Him with others. When we are a part of His Biblical community, we team up to serve so others can be reached and transformed by the gospel. As we grow, we take on more responsibility and become leaders of ten who can make room for others to be transformed by the power of the gospel.

// HOW TO USE THE STUDY

Great benefits are to be gained in choosing to use The Study. Committing to the lifestyle of Biblical community is the means for the Holy Spirit to bring about transformation.

MESSAGE NOTES

The message on Sunday will equip you with one main point. It will also lead you into an action step during the week. You will benefit most when choosing to worship each Sunday during the series. There is an area for you to jot down thoughts, insights, and impactful parts of the message.

SPEND TIME WITH JESUS

Spend time reading and meditating on God and His Word. This will help you grow as a believer in Jesus as you develop a practice of studying God's Word. Each week, you have been learning to spend time opening God's Word and applying it to your life. Let's take your study another step.

This Study volume will help you read through the Gospel of Matthew together. Each week there are four reading days. Make an appointment with Jesus to read and pray Scripture, and then each day share with others what you are learning."

REACH

This section will provide you coaching on how to have gospel conversations. They will happen over a meal, during time in the car, over coffee or spontaneously with co-workers, neighbors or friends. You can be the instrument God uses to bring His good news of hope.

November and December are times when people are aware of parts of the gospel story—Thanksgiving, the birth of Jesus, giving and receiving gifts, family, and memories of church. These are connectors for gospel conversations.

// REACH

Christmas is one of the most strategic times of the year to share Jesus with others.

During the next several weeks, you will study a number of stories from the life of Jesus. You will learn how He reached people. As you take a step of obedience to His agenda to reach your friends, family, and neighbors, He will show up. He wants to teach you to reach people like He did.

READ MATTHEW 4:18-28; MARK 1:16-20

What does Jesus invite these disciples to do?

What does Jesus promise?

How does this passage apply to you?

Over the next month, develop a plan to go fishing this Christmas. Ask Jesus for help and direction. Where can you invite people to hear the gospel? Christmas Eve at Good News is one place. Is there another venue in your home, office, club, or in personal conversations? Ask your small group to team-up. Follow Jesus, and He will make you a fisher of men. Start this week. Ask!

Turn Matthew 4:19 into a prayer. Say yes to Jesus' invitation, and ask Him to teach you how to fish for men.
